OUR VERDICT

A 24/7 receptionist for the price of one month of most chatbots

Top pick
Local business

Salons, clinics, trades and gyms lose customers when messages wait until the next morning. DealBot AI answers them in seconds on seven channels — WhatsApp, Instagram DMs, Facebook Messenger, Telegram, email, SMS and a website chat widget — from one inbox. You paste your website and it learns your services and prices; it checks your live availability, offers real slots and books into your calendar, remembers each customer across channels, handles objections like "too expensive" instead of going quiet, turns Instagram and Facebook comments into DMs, follows up with people who stop replying and hands anything unusual or high-value to you with a summary. The pricing is unusually honest: $99 once with nothing renewing, while the AI itself runs on your own Anthropic key at Anthropic's prices with no mark-up — you can see every cent and set a spending cap. It comes from Eager Dragon Publishing Ltd, a registered UK company, and a 60-day money-back guarantee makes it easy to try.

- Seven channels, one inbox. WhatsApp, Instagram, Messenger, Telegram, email, SMS and website chat.
- Books by itself. Live availability, real slots, confirmed bookings, no double booking.
- Follows up and sells. Handles objections and chases leads who go quiet.

- Pay once. $99, nothing renews; AI usage at Anthropic's price with no mark-up.

Good to know

- AI usage is extra. You need your own Anthropic account and pay per use; 10 AI credits are included to start. Set a spending cap.
- WhatsApp takes longer. WhatsApp Business verification is controlled by Meta and can take extra time.
- Review before go-live. Read test conversations and correct anything; AI can make mistakes.
- A tool, not a guarantee. Results depend on your business and prices, as the seller says. Mention the assistant in your privacy notice.

1

Try the live demo

Ask the demo assistant on the sales page a few questions your customers ask, to see how it answers.

2
